GLENDALE MAKING FIGHT BEFORE STATE RAILROAD BODY AGAINST PACIFIC ELECTRIC FARE INCREASE

City Joins With Alhambra and South Pasadena in Making United Stand; Municipal Officials in Attendance; Alleged Law Violations Cited

Glendale, Alhambra and South Pasadena today presented a united attack in their charges that the 20 per cent passenger rate increase granted the Pacific Electric by the state railroad commission was in violation of the constitution of California.

Attorneys representing suburban and beach communities were present while hundreds of men and women from Glendale, Alhambra, South Pasadena, Long Beach, Venice, Santa Monica, Hermosa, Manhattan, Redondo and other outlying points crowded the auditorium at Normal Hill center, Los Angeles.

Glendale's protest was based on the claim that its line will not be included in the improvement program of the Pacific Electric, for which the increase was granted.

Bert P. Woodward, city attorney, charged in his complaint that the Pacific Electric tracts between Colorado street and San Fernando road have not been brought down to grade and that improvements in this district have been neglected.

While the commission was adjourned for luncheon the directors of the Glendale Chamber of Commerce in session here were considering a drastic resolution voicing the protest of the citizens against the "injustice" of the new rates.

City Officials Present

Among the city officials attending the rate hearing were Mayor Spencer Robinson, City Manager W. H. Reeves, City Attorney Woodard and members of the council, all of whom expected to get an opportunity to testify regarding the service. E. F. Sanders, assistant secretary of the Glendale Chamber of Commerce, Dr. Jessie A. Russell, chairman of the civic committee, and numerous other members, also were present demonstrating their support of their charges made in city's complaint.

James M. Rhoades, secretary of the Chamber, and members of the board of directors, expect to be present this afternoon and present a copy of their resolution to the rail board.

Alhambra Raise Cited

The charges that the rate increase was in violation of the constitution alleged that the constitution specifically provides that a transit company shall not be permitted to charge a straight fare between two points which is greater than the sum and

Today's World News In Brief

(By International News Service to Glendale Evening News)

U. S. DOES NOT LOOK WITH FAVOR ON GENOA MEETING

WASHINGTON, Jan. 24.—President Harding and his advisers have informally conveyed to European statesmen in Washington that the United States does not look with favor at this time on the Genoa economic conference, scheduled for March 8, invitations for which have already been issued by the Italian government. This fact led to predictions in European quarters today that the conference will be called off or postponed until some later date.

HARDING SOON TO ADVANCE PLAN FOR MARINE SUBSIDY

WASHINGTON, Jan. 24.—President Harding will go before congress within a few days with a plan for the establishment of an American merchant marine subsidy, it was stated at the White House today by Chairman Lasker of the United States shipping board. Lasker conferred with the president more than an hour concerning various plans for a ship subsidy and submitted the plans agreed upon by the shipping board after consultation with various shipping interests.

FARMERS' MEETING CONSIDERS FINANCIAL MATTERS

WASHINGTON, Jan. 24.—President Harding's national agricultural conference today took up the financial emergency confronting the farmer and the European situation as it affects American agriculture. The beginning of the second day of the parley also saw conference committees begin the work of sifting the multitude of recommendations submitted from all parts of the country designed to aid agriculture. The farming industry in the United States can blame its present depression on war-time inflation and failure to spend "boom" profits properly, speakers told the conference. The loss of purchasing power of gold during the war period was held as being another contributing factor.

DRY LAW TO BE ENFORCED, ASSERTS U. S. OFFICIAL

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 24.—Uncle Sam's drive against bootleggers was on in full swing in California today. E. C. Yellowley, field representative of National Prohibition Commissioner Haynes and known as a result of his work throughout the United States as the "nemesis of bootleggers" was on the job in full charge of the campaign. "They might as well know it," he said of the illicit rum sellers. "They've all got to go. It's not a matter of prohibition, it's a question of law enforcement." Yellowley came here after tightening up the dry barriers at the Mexican border and when his work is completed in California will go to Oregon and thence to Washington and the Canadian border. As a "dry" measure it was announced today that the members of the coast guard acting under the direction of the treasury department, would be armed with Springfield rifles and instructed to use them against booze smugglers on the coast. United States marines have been detailed to instruct the coast guardsmen in rifle practice. Through this means it is hoped to end booze smuggling on the Pacific coast.

NINE DAYS' FUNERAL SERVICE FOR POPE UNDER WAY

ROME, Jan. 24.—The traditional nine days' funeral services for the late Pope Benedict XV began at 9:30 o'clock this morning when mass was celebrated by the senior canon of St. Peter's cathedral. A similar ceremony will be conducted each morning for the succeeding eight days. The burial of the pontiff will not take place until tomorrow and the body will remain in state upon the catalfalque in the Basilica of St. Peter's until noon Wednesday. As the requiem mass was celebrated this morning the Julian chorus sang softly in the chapel. The senior canon gave absolution at the papal bier. Thousands of visitors have poured into Rome over night and shortly after

BIG FACTORY PLANS TO LOCATE HERE; LAND SECURED

Tract Near San Fernando and Brand Taken; First Unit to Start at Once

Another industry for Glendale! Announcement is made today through the Chamber of Commerce that the Power Implement & Machine Works of Modesto, Calif., a concern incorporated for $300,000, will move to Glendale at once, arrangements having been made by J. J. Ferlin, president, for property adjacent to Harry E. White's Cletrac agency, corner of San Fernando road and Brand boulevard.

The tract of land obtained by the manufactory is 119.91 feet on San Fernando road, 401 feet on Glendale avenue and 113 on Forest avenue, sufficient for the needs of the company, it is stated. A brick and concrete factory building—the first unit—will be constructed at once, preliminary sketches having been made.

This will entail an expense of $25,000 alone, not to count the cost of the ground, or moving the plant.

Two products for which the Power Implement people already hold patent rights are the Zanon mower, made for tractors, the sale of which is world wide; and the Hol-Fast Piston clamp. They are said to be the only machines of their kind in the world and orders from mechanics on the Pacific coast for the piston clamp is crowding production. It is being distributed through the Allied Industries, Inc., a selling organization with offices in Los Angeles, San Francisco and Seattle.

The Zanon mower, attached to any make of tractor, will do as much as three men and three teams, it is said.

To Employ Many Men

This product alone will employ fifty to seventy-five men in its manufacture, it is indicated. Another dozen men will be employed in the repair department of the plant, as it is expected to do work here for all of the territory tributary to Los Angeles.

It will be possible for the plant here to duplicate almost any piece of machinery, thus giving it the advantage over the average repair shop. However, this will be but a sideline compared to the manufacturing of the mowers and clamps, it is stated

ORANGE PICKING ORDERED STOPPED

Fruit Must Stay on Trees Until Survey of Frost Damage Is Completed

Dispatches to The Glendale Evening News over its International News Service leased wire say that with the minimum temperatures in the citrus growing belt ranging from 26 to 34 degrees, it was believed by orchardists that there was no frost damage to orange or lemon groves last night or early today.

The Los Angeles minimum temperature ranged from 40 degrees at Highland Park to 47 degrees at the United States weather bureau station downtown.

The official forecast in Los Angeles and vicinity for tonight and Wednesday is for fair weather with frost except near the coast.

Deputy State Market Director Britt has asked the heads of the trans-continental railroads to refuse citrus fruits for shipment picked since January 19. This, however, will not affect 450 carloads of oranges and lemons picked before the recent cold snap.

The boards of supervisors of Los Angeles, San Bernardino and Riverside counties have passed ordinances forbidding picking oranges and lemons until a survey of the frost damage has been made.

Mrs. Townsend Clark Chosen As Chairman

The members of the Mothers' Club of the Acacia Street School, Parent-Teachers' association, held a business meeting at the school recently at which Mrs. Townsend Clark was appointed chairman of a committee to investigate and report on the matter of that organization, giving a vaudeville entertainment for the benefit of the playground and for securing office furnishings for the school.

The business meeting was preceded by a social hour, during which home-made cake and coffee were served. A program of songs and recitations was given by the children of the school.

The mother count was awarded to Mrs. Bullis' room for having the largest number of mothers present at the meeting.

Earl Brown, chemistry teacher at Glendale Union High school, has been called in by the authorities to analyze the chemicals used in stink bombs unloosed in the basement of the main building.

dawn a long line began forming outside of St. Peter's marshalled by police and soldiers. There were 400 soldiers on guard and most of the policemen in Rome were stationed in the piazza of St. Peter's. Mechanical preparations for the conclave were begun today when masons commenced erecting walls to seal up completely the room in which the papal election will be conducted. The telephone wires will have been removed by the time the conclave opens. The non-Italian vote in the conclave has been reduced from thirty to twenty-nine by the death of Cardinal Almarez Y. Santos, archbishop of Toledo. The Italian membership of the sacred college is thirty-one. There have been increasing signs of reconciliation between the vatican and the Italian government. Upon orders from the ministry of marine all the Italian warships have lowered their flags to half mast. There is no change in the predictions as to Benedict XV's successor except that Cardinal-Priest Giuseppe Prisco, archbishop of Naples, is now mentioned as a dark horse. Friends of Cardinal Louis Nazarie Begin, archbishop of Quebec, are urging his election if the sacred college decides upon the election of a non-Italian. There seems little likelihood, however, that a non-Italian will be chosen.

DENIES RAILROADS BROKEN DOWN WHEN TURNED BACK

WASHINGTON, Jan. 24.—Walker D. Hines, former director-general of railroads, unequivocally denied today that the nation's railroads were "broken down" when the government turned them back to private ownership in 1919. Hines declared before the senate interstate commerce committee that on the contrary, government control had resulted in improved equipment, better morale and more all-round efficiency. "They were in much better shape when returned than when the government took them over," Hines said.

WOMAN DENIES SHE SHOT MOTION PICTURE EMPLOYE

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 24.—County hospital surgeons fought desperately today to save the life of Paul Kramer, an assistant motion picture director, who was shot under mysterious circumstances late last night while driving a motor truck. It was said three bullets entered his head and body. Steadfastly denying Kramer's charges that she shot him, Mrs. Mattie Hannon, mother-in-law of Kramer, asserted at the city jail, where she is held on suspicion of a felony, that she was at a downtown theatre with her daughter when the film man was shot.

SIBERIAN ISSUE EXPECTED TO COME TO EARLY CLOSE

WASHINGTON, Jan. 24.—Japan's refusal to withdraw her troops from Siberia for the present—although solemnly assuring the world powers gathered in Washington that she has no ulterior aims in this vast Russian territory—is expected to bring the Siberian issue to an early close, it was conceded today by conference officials. An effort may be made to fix some tentative date in the future for the evacuation, but even this is doubtful, and it was regarded as highly problematical after today's discussion the Siberian question will be disposed of with the adoption of a general resolution in which all powers will declare their peaceful intentions toward Russian territory. The American attitude toward Siberia will be outlined in today's secret session by Secretary of State Hughes. The United States feels a particular concern over the Siberian issue, because military intervention was inaugurated as an American-Japanese undertaking, ostensibly to protect the withdrawal of Czecho-Slovak troops from Russian territory. With that accomplished, the Americans withdrew. The Japanese found interests to protect and remained. Japan's enemies in Washington—and they are legion—were quick to point out today that the fate of Siberia is thus left on a Japanese promise. Korean delegates and the far east republic mission, who have knocked vainly on the conference door for recognition in Washington, pointed out that Japan made a similar declaration of peaceful intent toward Korea in 1902, in the opening paragraph of the first Anglo-Japanese alliance.

COMMENT
THAT'S ALL

People Have an 'Inning'
Chicago Enjoys Its Cold
Why Not Some Whitewash?
Glendale's Spirit Wins

By Gil A. Cowan

TODAY the people are having their "inning" before the state railroad commission in regard to the raise in rates.

One month after that august body issues blanket orders for wholesale increases in fare, it lets the voice of those affected finally be heard.

And in the meantime the Glendale commuter has been equipping himself with automobile, or otherwise arranging for more economical transportation.

The publicity given this change in rates has resulted in thousands of casual patrons of the Pacific Electric staying at home. This has been registered by the trade at the local theatres and stores.

Little comment need be made on these facts. Is the Pacific Electric profiting by such business methods as enforced by the state railroad commission?

Chicago is in the grip of the year's coldest wave of winter weather, dispatches to The Glendale Evening News indicate.

So is all that section comprising the northern central states. Stories of suffering along Lake Michigan shores are appalling.

Drifting ice, 46 below, no immediate relief promised—those are some of the terms drifting in over the telegraph wire that makes one want to dance for sheer joy out here where it is only around freezing point, at the lowest, although yesterday the thermometer didn't drop lower than 42 degrees, according to U. S. weather reports.

Mrs. M. F. Foster of 236 North Louise street has a suggestion for public safety, which might be followed if our esthetic friends will approve.

"Whitewash the trees in the streets," she says. This would tend to prevent accidents, as in a number of cases the trees are in such a location that, unless a person is aware of their being there, a smashed motor-car may result.

Other cities make a practice of whitewashing the trunks of all trees in the streets, Mrs. Foster adds in arguing for the idea. But if the city hasn't the money to trim trees, where would it find the wherewithal to whitewash 'em.

When William Mulholland answered Glendale and Burbank's question about sewage disposal at the Regional Planning Conference in Pasadena Saturday, he only expressed a view which already has been put forth time and again. That is,

"Glendale can and will solve its sewage problem without annexation to Los Angeles."

That fact must be written indelibly into the minds of every citizen of the city. For, wherever there is a will, there is a way and the metropolis today is finding that it must accede to that indomitable spirit which has made Glendale "the fastest growing city in America of its class."

Glendale is proud of Los Angeles' achievements. It is glad to see the changing attitude toward the suburbs which will make for a greater southern California and a brighter future for all of the cities.

Hollywood banks transacted a business aggregating $132,767,847.65 during the last eleven months of 1921—from February 1 when a clearing house was established in that section of Los Angeles.

And the last month showed a gain of $2,630,748.62! Wonderful, isn't it? That is how a business barometer like a clearing house would register Glendale's growth.

Start Street Grading at Broadway Heights

Work was commenced on grading the streets in Broadway Heights yesterday and the job will be pushed to completion as soon as possible, according to Frank E. Corson, the subdivider. Peter L. Ferry is the contractor. With the accessibility to both the yellow and red car lines as well as the good highways, this beautiful foothill tract is bound to become a popular residential district.

BRYAN STATEMENT STIRS

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 24.—William Jennings Bryan's prediction that the republican control of congress is to be overthrown next fall and democracy returned to power, did not seriously perturb administration leaders today. The Bryan prediction, however, created a stir in congress because it is there that the battle for control of the administration next year will be fought out.

Almost without exception republican spokesmen attributed the Commoner's prediction as the opening gun in his campaign to succeed Park Trammell as United States senator from Florida. The three reasons Bryan gave for probable republican defeat, the Newberry case, taxes and agricultural discontent—were declared to be fallacious and based on "mis-statements, misrepresentation and ignorance of opinion on accomplishments."

GETS LIFE IMPRISONMENT

CHICAGO, Jan. 24.—Thomas F. Catherwood, confessed slayer of his sister-in-law, Mrs. Betty Sharples, pleaded guilty in criminal court to the charge of murder and was sentenced to life imprisonment by Judge Joseph Fitch. On the witness stand Catherwood told how on November 22, last, he had strangled Mrs. Sharples to death in her home. He had done it, he said, when he glimpsed $50 in her bank book. The state had demanded the death penalty.

JOHN BARRYMORE IN MARSHALL NEILAN FEATURE FILM

'The Lotus Eater' Is Now Being Shown at T. D. & L. to Satisfied Audiences

That is the treat in store for you today at the T. D. L. theatre. It is the ultimate in entertainment, combining the work of the best of American actors and one of the greatest motion picture directors.

But in addition, "The Lotus Eater," contains one of the most gripping stories that it has ever been our fortune to see in a picture. There is more action in this production than in three of the usual kind, and there are thrills galore, with love, romance and adventure.

The admirers of Barrymore will be startled by the gripping characterization he gives. It is one picture in a thousand, and one which you should not miss.

Special Comedy

In addition to "The Lotus Eaters" there is the special Lloyd Hamilton comedy "Rolling Stones" which affords much laughter. Kinograms of world events and sketchographs. Olsene's unusual musical score especially arranged by him for "The Lotus Eaters," will prove interesting to music lovers of the city.

Musical Recital Wins Praise From Audience

The pupils of Mrs. C. E. Swartsfager and Mrs. A. Belle Johnson entertained their parents and friends at a musical recital Sunday afternoon in the auditorium of the Seventh-day Adventists' school on North Isabel street.

COAL MINERS THROWN OUT

HAZL'TON, Pa., Jan. 24.—The Lehigh Valley Coal company has suspended operations in the Lehigh, Schuylkill, Northumbert and Columbia fields for the balance of the week because of the poor market. More than 25,000 men will be made idle. The Jeddo Highland Coal company, the largest anthracite independent producer, shut down its collieries because of unsatisfactory market conditions and 5000 men were thrown out of work.

Rub Backache Away

Back hurt you? Can't straighten up without feeling sudden pains, sharp aches and twinges? Now listen! That's lumbago, sciatica or maybe from a strain, and you'll get blessed relief the moment you rub your back with soothing, penetrating "St. Jacobs Oil." Nothing else takes out soreness, lameness and stiffness so quickly. You simply rub it on and out comes the pain. It is perfectly harmless and doesn't burn or discolor the skin.

Limber up! Don't suffer! Get a small trial bottle from any drug store and after using it just once, you'll forget that you ever had backache, lumbago or sciatica, because your back will never hurt or cause any more misery. It never disappoints and has been recommended for 60 years.—Advertisement.

WALT H. NICOLES IS BACK FROM TRIP TO INDIANAPOLIS

Attends Silver Anniversary of Paper Company Which He Helped to Organize

"Old Nick"—Walt H. Nicoles of 322 Fairview street, Glendale, Calif., was the surprise guest at the silver anniversary of the Crescent Paper company's annual meeting at Indianapolis, Ind., the first of the year.

Only three officials of the company knew of his presence, for they had invited him and paid all of his expenses to be present at the twenty-fifth birthday of the concern, which he was instrumental in launching.

The souvenir booklet published for the occasion had his photograph as the frontispiece and it was titled "Old Nick"—Walt H. Nicoles—Traveling South." He had the southern territory for the house until eight years ago when he came to California to reside.

Enjoys Snappy Weather

"It was fine weather all the way," said Mr. Nicoles, who reports a most enjoyable trip, arriving home last Saturday night. "They certainly treated me fine and we had a great time at the annual banquet. The coldest weather I experienced was 20 degrees below zero—just snappy enough to make me feel good."

On his return to Glendale Mr. Nicoles found that the Tourists' Horseshoe club, of which he is secretary, had installed electric lights on their grounds and laid out another croquet court. These improvements were another surprise for Mr. Nicoles who is telling all his fellow members about conditions "back east."

Joseph Guidinger Has Suggestion on Sewage

Editor The Evening News: As the owner of my home in Glendale, I am, of course, very much interested in the matter of sewage disposal. The idea presented herein is not original with me, except as to place of application; but it has been endorsed by sanitary engineers of both federal and state governments. And bulletins containing all data regarding it have been published by the U. S. department of agriculture and also our state experiment station. It is nothing more nor less than a small septic tank for the country home. If the idea is practical for the country home it should be just as feasible for our suburban homes, especially so in the city of Glendale where the sub-soils are of such a character that adequate drainage from the tank can be readily obtained at minimum expense.

By using this system for our residence sections we would eliminate the expense of sewer lines in many miles of streets and the cost of connecting up each residence; and also eliminate cost of obtaining and maintaining several hundred acres of exceedingly valuable land to take care of sewage, and pumps to carry it to the point of disposal, inasmuch as there is no available site which could be reached by gravity flow from all sections of the city.

Opening of Gateway Market Declared Big Success on Saturday

The Gateway Market at the intersection of Brand boulevard and San Fernando road is now open for business.

Its opening Saturday afternoon and evening was considered quite a success by both its patrons and those directly interested in its welfare. A great many people visited it not only from the immediate vicinity but from all sections of Glendale.

F. W. Franklin of the grocery department reported serving over twenty gallons of buttermilk, besides numerous cups of coffee and over 1000 sandwiches to the guests of the occasion.

"Our sales were way above what we really expected," declared Mr. Franklin. "In the grocery we waited upon nearly 1100 people."

Claude Caswell, manager of the meat market, also reported an excellent patronage.

George L. Taylor, proprietor of the Gateway fruit and vegetable stand states that he is well pleased with everything in general including business, location and his business associates.

Nay Lee and Leon Nuhn, also did a good business at the bakery.

"I came within 10 cents of predicting the amount of business," remarked Mr. Nuhn, "so I didn't miss it far."

Mrs. C. W. Letts, who has charge of J. J. Martini's stand in the center of the establishment, yesterday was waiting for more flowers to grow so they could be placed on sale. Saturday her stock of flowers was completely sold out and she remarked yesterday that it was "a clean sweep."

"Things opened up very well," declared George B. Karr, owner of the building. "We appreciate the public's response very much. Customers came not only from the immediate neighborhood but from all over Glendale. They even came down here in automobiles from the northern part of the city. They not only visited us but they bought stuff and sales started off fine. It makes a fellow feel good to come into a community and have his efforts meet such a reception."

Mr. Karr announced yesterday that his shirt factory and the other stores in the building all would be in operation in a few weeks.

Mrs. J. W. Mueller Is Well Remembered Upon Her Birthday

Mother's birthday was not forgotten Sunday by members of the Mueller family.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Mueller were just settling down for a lonesome day at their home, 1417 South Central avenue, when the members of their family began to arrive with lunch all prepared to spend the day.

Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Mueller, 448 West Wilson avenue; Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Mueller and their son, Robert Junior, from Hollywood, and R. H. Longlands from Los Angeles.

An enjoyable time was enjoyed by all.

SETTING GOOD EXAMPLE

A "clean-up campaign" is now being waged by E. T. Jenney upon the rear of the lot at 1737 South San Fernando road occupied by the branch office of the W. A. Reitman Realty company.

"Just setting a good example," remarked Mr. Jenney good naturedly, "I can't ask a man to get out and clean up his own back yard until ours looks better. It is just a case of picking a mote out of my own eye before I try to get a beam out of some one else's optic."

J. L. ANDREWS SATISFIED

J. L. Andrews, new proprietor of the Glendale Grill, 1415 South San Fernando road, announced yesterday that he was more than pleased with the establishment's volume of business. In a few weeks he expects to have the interior completely remodeled and contemplated enlarging the dining room and having a fireproof kitchen erected upon the rear of the present building.

CLAUDE CASWELL PLEASED

Eight hundred meat customers patronized Claude Caswell's shop in the Glendale Gateway Markets last Saturday—the opening day. "I was never so pleased with business in my life. Practically every department was 'cleaned out' by 8 o'clock in the evening. Tell the people I appreciate their enthusiastic response to our advertising the Glendale Gateway Markets' opening."

B. G. Jackson, proprietor of Jackson's garage at 1600 South San Fernando Road, expects to be able to move from 1200 South Central avenue to his new home at 216 West Eulalia avenue in about two weeks. The carpenters have now finished their work on his bungalow and the painters are starting Wednesday to decorate the interior.

Ancient Oldsmobile Is Now Domiciled in South Glendale

Do you remember when everybody was singing the popular song "Come take a trip in my Oldsmobile" in honor of Barney Oldfield's first race?

Well, the original "one-lunger," or his brother, is now domiciled temporarily at 410 West Los Feliz road, in the Tropico Garage.

It is an antique Oldsmobile, which was ancient when some of the movie stars were getting married for the first time, and is being used to bring laughter to the multitude through slap stick comedy.

Among its "exclusive features" is a wooden carriage body, guaranteed not to warp, an iron tiller hinged to enable a large person to slip under it on the front, back and only seat, a radiator under the floor of the prow, a one cylinder engine under the stern on the car but guaranteed not to drop off, a regular old-fashioned "honk-honk" horn attached to the "rudder" and a phonograph handle on the right side amidships.

"When it was brought in here," remarked C. M. Meech, "I thought they wanted it fixed. I got all ready to balk. Then I found the movie company only wanted to park it here."

H. K. EGLEY IS IN CHARGE

H. K. Egley will have charge of the new filling station at 1523 South Brand boulevard, according to an announcement by H. V. Smith, special agent in Glendale for the Standard Oil company. He also stated that the station would be ready for business in a day or two. It will sell Red Crown gasoline, Zerolene motor oils and other Standard Oil products. Mr. Egley has been in charge of similar stations elsewhere for a number of years.

FRED HEAL IS IN CHARGE

Fred Heal of 296 Cameron Place, who formerly operated a realty office at 246 North Brand boulevard, has taken charge of the Gateway Real Estate office at 1742 South San Fernando Road in the new Gateway building. He is spending a large part of his time familiarizing himself with values around his new headquarters and expects to concentrate in southern Glendale property before long.

WILLIAM MILLER ON TRIP

William Miller, blacksmith at 413 West Los Feliz Road, motored to Long Beach Sunday accompanied by a friend from Los Angeles. Mr. Miller was sick about a week ago, but says he won't have time to be sick again for a long time. He says that "when a man works a year or so he has a perfect right to be sick for a day or two."

PREDICTS MUCH BUILDING

There is lots of new building in sight, according to George Bentley of the Bentley-Schoeneman Lumber company, 460 West Los Feliz road. Yesterday afternoon he commented upon the fact that several building plans are being delivered to prospective builders. He is certain that several of these plans will be utilized at once.

NEW HARDWARE BUSINESS

S. F. Bell and J. M. Wilson are busy today supervising the installation of fixtures for their new hardware store at 1738 South San Fernando Road in the new Gateway building. They expect to begin receiving their stock in a few days and hope to be able to open up in a couple of weeks.

BRENKMAN STORE BUSY

"We can't complain of business at all," declared Mrs. C. L. Brenkman of Brenkman's Electric Fixture and Toy store, 1524 South San Fernando Road, yesterday afternoon. "Of course, we aren't so rushed that we couldn't do more, but we always seem to have enough to keep us busy."

EAT LESS MEAT IF BACK HURTS

Take a Glass of Salts to Flush Kidneys if Bladder Bothers You

Eating meat regularly eventually produces kidney trouble in some form or other, says a well-known authority, because the uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggish; clog up and cause all sorts of distress, particularly backache and misery in the kidney region; rheumatic twinges, severe headaches, acid stomach, constipation, torpid liver, sleeplessness, bladder and urinary irritation.

The moment your back hurts or kidneys aren't acting right, or if bladder bothers you, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity; also to neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts cannot injure anyone; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then to keep the kidneys and urinary organs clean, thus avoiding serious kidney diseases.—Advertisement.

So he has postponed his trip to Southern California for a week or two.

NEW MANAGERS AND PLAYERS TO SHOW IN PACIFIC COAST LEAGUE

Baseball Fans Get Plenty of Material to Discuss This Winter; Tie in Basketball Contest

By HOWARD M'GILLIS, Sporting Editor The Evening News

With the 1922 opening of the Pacific coast league but little more than two months away, the many followers of the ever prevalent "hot stove" league are being given considerable "food for thought" in announcements regarding the various new managers and players that have been signed since the close of last season, the contemplated changes in the league's rules and regulations, spectacular sales and trades and numerout other additional off-season happenings. In fact, the national pastime has held a more prominent place in the columns of the country's sporting page during the present winter than at any time since the days of the ill-fated Federal league.

Of the eight managers who piloted the coast teams at the close of the 1921 pennant chase, but two will be on hand for roll call at the start of the annual spring training period. This condition is without precedent in the history of Prexy McCarthy's celebrated far western "loop" and should be the means of obtaining near major league baseball for coast fans, due to the fact that most of the team leaders will be fighting, not only for a place in the percentage columns, but for their jobs or in other words their "bread and butter."

Holdovers In Southland

Strangely enough, the two holdover managers are the pilots of Southern California teams—Red Killefer, who led "the nice old gentlemen" of Los Angeles club to the 1921 pennant, and Bill Essick, fighting manager of the Vernon Tigers. This combination has brought the P. C. L. gonfalon to the Southland with clock-like regularity during the past few years and as a result they have established themselves as two of the most popular team leaders, both with the players and fans, that ever debated one of "Red" Held's decisions.

The Sacramento Senators, who finished the season less than two full games behind the Angels, will be led during the coming summer months by Charley Pick, who was the leading third baseman of the 1921 race. He will succeed "Wild Wilyum" Rodgers, veteran coast and major leaguer whose continual fight and vinegar on the field were responsible for the Senators being nicknamed the "Yippers." Although Rodgers was considered more than a success at the helm of the Sacramento club his resignation is understood to have been tendered as the result of alleged differences with the team's stockholders.

To Direct Bay City

"Dots" Miller, recently obtained by the San Francisco club from the Philadelphia Nationals, has been chosen to take the wheel of the Bay City machine, which was left abandoned by the roadside by Chas. Graham, last year's manager and director of the club. Graham's resignation was entirely voluntary, it being generally considered by those in touch with the situation that his action was taken due to disappointment over the 1921 showing of the Seals, who were looked upon as a 10 to 1 favorite for first place until a few weeks before the close of the season.

"Duffy" Lewis, former world series hero of the Boston Red Sox who came back last year and led the league in batting, is scheduled to lead the Salt Lake Bees at the Mormon's capital, who were headed during the past two seasons by "Cactus" Cravath. Lewis is in for a he-man job in trying to lift the Bees out of the rut to which they were relegated following the Chicago White Sox scandal in 1919, when Comiskey purchased the Utes' three best bets—Sheely, Johnson and Mulligan.

Leaders Well Known

The three remaining teams—Oakland, Seattle and Portland—will be bossed in the "campaign of '22" by Ivan Howard, Walter McCredie and John Turner, respectively. All three are well known in the baseball world and are expected to make good at their new stations. Howard, who succeeds his brother Del as leader of the Acorns, is returning to the national pastime after an absence of three years. He was formerly utility infielder of the Los Angeles "Coasters" and of the Cleveland Indians.

Nothing need be said concerning the ability of McCredie, who has been in the Coast league for the past fifteen years, while Turner, the new Portland skipper, is more of an unknown quality. Although he has proved a success as a big league scout his advent into the managerial ranks is still put in the "conjecture" class.

Tied for Leadership

As a result of Saturday night's victory of the University of Redlands basketball tossers over the Occidental Tigers the Bulldogs are now tied with S. B. U. C. for the leadership of the Southern California conference championship, each being credited with four victories and but one defeat. The score of Saturday night's brawl was 22 to 16, Coach Daniel's proteges nosing out the Oxyites by the narrow margin of three field goals.

By defeating California Tech in a hard fought 17 to 14 contest the Whittier Poets brought their percentage to the "half-way" mark, where they are tied with Coach Nixon's Pomona Sagehens, who drew a bye during the past week.

How They Stand

Following are the present standings of the conference teams:

Team.	Won.	Lost.	Pct.
Redlands	4	1	.800
S. B. U. C.	4	1	.800
Whittier	2	2	.500
Pomona	2	2	.500
Cal. Tech.	2	3	.400
Occidental	0	4	.000

He has seen the membership advance from 400,000 to 1,040,000. The WORLD OVER

By FRANKLIN B. MORSE.
PACIFIC SPORTS SERVICE

The victory of Georges Carpentier over George Cook, the unknown Australian boxer, in London recently, has left the heavyweight boxing situation just as cold as it ever was. Just why Carpentier should cast an eye on Dempsey again because he defeated the Australian, is something no one can quite understand. Certainly Georges should know that he has no chance against the American champion. He ought to know it better than anyone else.

As far as the public is concerned, while it may be willing to admit that the Frenchman is game, and has a wallop, it will not concede that he has any more chance today against Dempsey than he had when the twain met up last year at Jersey City. The whole thing is that Carpentier is not big enough or rugged enough. It is not his fault that he does not weigh twenty or more pounds than he does. Promoter Tex R. Rickard is quite right when he maintains that the public will not pay its money to see another match between these two men. There could be no doubt as to the outcome. Another thing, the American public is noted for the spirit of fair play which it possesses. It has no desire to see a good little man brought to the slaughter against an opponent who manifestly is too strong and powerful for him.

"I will meet any boxer in the world provided sufficent guarantees are put up by those who want the match." This is a direct quotation from the lips of Jack Dempsey. It also is the prime reason why Mr. Dempsey is likely to go a long time without a match if he still maintains the scale of prices which he considers adequate recompense for his services.

If there were a Jim Jeffries or a Tom Sharkey nowadays we could put in the ring with Dempsey, there is no question but what Jack might demand practically, anything he wanted in the way of a purse. No promoter would hesitate to guarantee him any kind of a sum. He could fill a ring with a capacity of 150,000 persons and demand $100 or more for prime ringside seats.

But under the circumstances there are no Jeffries or Sharkeys, and there isn't a box fighter loose around the country that any human being would be justified in paying more than $5, ringside, to see someone get pummeled by Dempsey. Even Fred Fulton, that last despairing hope that some have had as an opponent for Dempsey, have had the props pulled out under him through the result of Fulton's recent match against Bartley Madden at New York. While it was termed a draw there were many in the crowd, a great many, who thought that Madden should have been given the decision. According to the popular sentiment the bell was the only thing that saved Fulton in the tenth round from a knockout.

It would seem that these would-be fighters of the championship are eliminating themselves and saving Dempsey the trouble of doing so. Just a short time ago Harry Wills, the negro, was shown to be an impossible proposition through his match against another negro heavyweight, Bill Tate. Now comes Fulton and shows himself up.

The heavyweight situation seems quite as hopeless now as it did in the days when Jim Jeffries had to come out of a long retirement to battle Jack Johnson. The only redeeming feature is that a white man is the titleholder.

SPORTS CHATTER

By BILL UNMACK
PACIFIC SPORTS SERVICE

The University of California track and field team will positively defend its title at the annual set of games of the Intercollegiate A. A. A. A. in the east this season, but whether California or any other coast college continues competition in that organization is a matter for the Pacific coast conference to decide.

That is the substance of the remarks made by Graduate Manager L. Nichols of the University of California. The California team is a member of both the I. C. A. A. A. A. and the National Collegiate Athletic association. The long trip from the Pacific coast to the east, coupled with the different dates of competition of the two organizations makes it practically impossible for California or any other coast college to compete in both the big eastern meets. Eventually, Nichols believes, the coast colleges will have to decide on one or the other of these meets, and, as far as the University of California is concerned, Nichols and his associates will abide by the decision of the Pacific coast conference in the matter.

"Unless a college has a team of all-stars," says Nichols, "it is almost impossible to make a showing in the I. C. A. A. A. A. let alone win the meet. To win that meet a team has to have almost super athletes, just as we had last year when we won by half a point. Entries in this meet are unlimited. The result is that eastern colleges within easy access of the city in which the championships are held can send large teams and enter four or more men in each event if they so decide. This is naturally a tremendous handicap to a college from the Pacific coast which can only send a dozen men east at the most and then, the financial burden is tremendous when compared with a team of twenty-five or thirty men some of the eastern colleges enter. The National Collegiate rules are far more suitable and limit the number of men a college can have on a competing team. This method is fair to all and gives every college a chance. We can't enter both these meets and in the future I think a definite decision will have to be made by the colleges of the Pacific coast as to which meet we will go into."

California will have a track team just about as strong as last year, Sprott in the 880, Meijia the mile and Charlie Dorr, two miles, are the three outstanding absentees from last year. The team however is to have once more the services of Jack Merchant whose ability in the hammer throw, broad jump and weights should mean a large number of extra points. Oxy Hendrixson, the I. C. A. A. A. A. quarter-mile champion for 1920 and 1921, will make his last appearance with the California team this year. "Brick" Muller, of football fame, will be out again in the high jump. Bob Hutchinson, this year's captain, will look after the sprints with Arkley as the second string sprint man.

All in all, California's prospects look good, but whether the team can repeat and win the I. C. A. A. A. A. championship remains to be seen. Coach Walter Christie has posted notices for the first track rally to be held early in February, and at that time a better line on new material will be obtainable.

MAN IS SHOT TO DEATH

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, Jan. 24.—Steve Maslich, laughing and alternately cursing the world, went unfalteringly to his death before a rifle squad at the Utah state penitentiary. The volley was fired at 8:03 and Maslich was pronounced dead two minutes later.

Maslich was convicted with Nick Oblizato for the murder of Marco Laus and both sentenced to death. Both appealed to the supreme court for a new trial. Maslich's appeal was denied and Oblizato's has not yet been reviewed. Maslich asserted his innocence to the last.

The first lunacy laws in England were made in the reign of Edward Third.

OPPOSITION BY CUMMINGS

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 24.—If congress is going to usurp the authority of the interstate commerce commission and fix railroad rates by legislation, the commission might as well be abolished, Senator Cummins, republican, of Iowa, chairman of the senate interstate commerce committee, declared in the senate during debate of the pending bill to fix railroad mileage rates and make mileage books interchangeable.

Senator Cummins vigorously opposed the measure and said that the commission is "a far better judge of what rates should be than any senator."

MAY BECOME GOVERNOR

SAN DIEGO, Jan. 24.—J. I. Lugo, under secretary of the interior of Mexico, will replace Epigmenio Ybarra as governor of the northern district of Lower California, according to an unofficial report received here from Mexico City. No reason for the removal of Ybarra was given.

MESSENGER IS HELD UP

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Jan. 24.—Elliott Foster, negro messenger for the Eastern-Taylor Trust company was held up in a street car by three young men, who took $6,100 in cash and, stopping the car, leaped into an automobile which followed the car, and escaped.

THIS CITY FIGHTS RAISE IN RATES BY RAILWAY

Large Number of People at Hearing Being Held by the Railroad Commission

total of local fares between those two points.

In this connection the case of the rate increase on the Alhambra line was cited. The straight fare on limited cars between Alhambra and Los Angeles, under the new rates, is 26 cents each way. The fare from Los Angeles to Sierra Vista is 10 cents, and from Sierra Vista to Alhambra 6 cents, making a total of local fares 16 cents.

Hollywood, which has protested against the increase of from 6 cents to 10 cents on its line, was not represented at today's hearing. The Hollywood protest will be heard at a separate hearing later.

It was very evident from this morning's session that the hearings would be continued for some time and that immediate relief from the new rates is doubtful. However, it was apparent taht if any city deserved consideration, Glendale would get it first. The discrimination against Pacific Electric patrons here has been well aired and the buzz saw of conversation indicated that "Glendale is ready to fight."

Offers Lower Fares

As a result of the rate increase granted the Pacific Electric by the state railroad commission the Union Pacific railroad has offered lower fares to commuters from Long Beach to Los Angeles, it was disclosed today.

Robert H. Cantley, representing Long Beach commuters and appearing as the first witness at the hearing, announced that the Union Pacific had offered to run trains between Long Beach and Los Angeles with fares much lower than those given by the Pacific Electric with its increased rates.

A typical commuter, Mr. Cantley engaged in a verbal duel with Frank Karr, attorney for the Pacific Electric, and his answers to Karr's questions were followed by waves of appiause from the crowd that packed Normal Hill Center auditorium.

Mr. Cantley's protest was against the increased rate to Long Beach, the new commutation book with tickets good only on the day on which they are dated and the revocation of the transfer privilege.

Frequently during the verbal battle between Mr. Cantley and Attorney Karr the crowd cheered Mr. Cantley when his answers put the attorney at a disadvantage.

Has to Pay More

Mr. Cantley testified that between 1800 and 2000 commuters used the Long Beach line daily. He said that the increase on the Long Beach line, granted by the commission, was far in excess of the 20 per cent increase which the commission designated.

He estimated that before the rate increase a commuter paid about $100 a year for his tickets to and from Los Angeles. Under the new rates and new commutation books, he said, the commuter now pays about $169 for his transportation annually.

"The average commuter can't afford this increase," he said. "Families are moving away from Long Beach because of it."

Glendale Lawyer Protests

When the hearing opened Bert Woodard, city attorney for Glendale, made an emphatic protest against the separation of the hearings of the protest of Hollywood and the protests of other communities. This separation had been granted by the commission on the ground that Hollywood's case was an urban proposition, while the others were interurban.

"Glendale is no more interurban than Hollywood," Woodard said.

Admission that there is a possibility that the increase given the Pacific Electric would be reduced was modified by the commissioners when the hearing opened.

CROWD TO ATTEND SCOUT BANQUET

Many Organizations Agree to Be Present at Gathering Next Friday Night

Practically every organization or club in the city will be represented at the monster Boy Scout banquet to be held at the new banquet room in the Citizens' building on Friday night of this week, it is reported. Cards bearing the names of the various organizations will be placed upon the tables which they have reserved for their representatives.

Two influential out-of-town speakers have been secured to address the banquet. In Stuart W. French one sees a man of potential influence in California. He lives in Pasadena and is a member of the twelfth regional committee of the Boy Scouts of America as well as being the president of the Pasadena scout council.

E. B. DeGroot, scout executive of the Los Angeles scout council, is well known.

Many reservations have been received from all kinds of organizations for their representatives, but there are still a few of these to be heard from. It is absolutely essential that all reservations be made by tomorrow evening. Phone H. F. Benner at Glendale 408.

As a rule the right ear is better than the left.

ROY B. COEUR IN WRITTEN PROTEST ON P. E. FARES

Sends Communication to State R. R. Commission; Objects to 'Useless Tickets'

Roy B. Coeur of 529 North Louise street makes public the following communication which he has addressed to the state railroad commission and it is printed without comment:

"I herewith enter my protest against the new rate raise and especially against what appears to be an insidious, indirect additional raise in rates by the Pacific Electric company. The latter method to which I refer is that of dating all tickets in the sixty-two ride book and compelling their use on specific days, or not at all.

"I am one of over 100 teachers who live in Glendale and who teach in Los Angeles, and during the month of February we shall be compelled to pay for sixty-two rides and be compelled to lose twenty-two of them since there are only twenty school days. In a normal calendar month we shall be compelled to lose at least eighteen tickets out of sixty-two. This method of raise increases our regular fare by 48 per cent from Glendale station and far in excess of that for fare from the south section.

No Trips at Night

"In addition we are not allowed to make a trip in the evening, but will be compelled to pay a cash fare and at the same time have from eighteen to twenty-two useless tickets in our possession. I have not even considered holidays, which would make the figures even more conspicuous.

"The teachers of all suburbs who teach in Los Angeles never have gotten a square deal on the ticket books, but yet it has not been such a flagrant violation of simple justice.

Furthermore, the fact that books cannot be purchased except on the last day of the month makes for hours of delay when one has to stand in line for purchase as will be the case if this method is allowed to stand.

"When I speak of these facts I am voicing the sentiments not only of all teachers, but the bankers and others who are not compelled to be at their business every calendar day. I am,

"Yours very respectfully,
"ROY B. COEUR."

VIVID LOVE STORY IS FEATURED ON GLENDALE BILL

Two Young Players Co-Stars in Production; Western Drama Also Shown

Few women are really bad, but some bring as much sorrow upon themselves and others through restlessness and recklessness as if they had chosen an evil way of life deliberately. Such was the case with poor Goldie Rowan, wife of a village blacksmith. Her punishment was severe and her repentance complete—the culmination being due to her boy's grieving over his mother's desertion.

The story is told in "What Love Will Do," a Fox photo-drama with Edna Murphy and Johnnie Walker as co-stars, which is playing at the Glendale theatre for the next two days.

Make Decided Hits

These two young players, who made decided hits in the William Fox special, "Over the Hill," which enjoyed a year's run on Broadway, New York, thus winning their way to stellar positions, have been co-starred ever since because of the great and growing popularity they have achieved together.

A two part western drama, a rollicking Rolin comedy and Internation News completes the big two hour show with Paul Carson providing superb musical selections.

Now is a good time to GO!
UNION PACIFIC SYSTEM — THE OVERLAND ROUTE

On either business or pleasure, now is a good time to go east. The January lull permits the business man to get away advantageously, while the fact that the eastern social, musical and dramatic seasons are at their height strongly invites a pleasure visit. Both are justified by the low cost of traveling.
